DETAILED ACTIONElection/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: forensic analytical technique selected from resonance spectroscopy methods, SEM-EDX, XPS-EPCA, with each of the method also a different specie (claim 7); luminescence spectroscopy, fluorescence spectroscopy, etc. (claim 8) with fluorescence and luminescence spectroscopy being one species, color spectrophotometry and visual observation – another species, electronic spectroscopy (?) – third species, vibrational spectroscopy - forth species; NMR spectroscopy in combination with luminescence (claim 9); and NMR spectroscopy in combination with visual (claim 10). The species are independent or distinct, because they are different analytical spectroscopic methods, each of which has different nature and requires a separate search.

Examiner's note: the examiner believes that the dependency of the claims is in error, since most of the spectroscopic methods listed in claim 8 dependent on claim 7 are not resonance spectroscopy techniques; at the same time NMR spectroscopy recited in claims 9 and 10 dependent on claim 8 (which does not recite resonance methods) is a resonance spectroscopy.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: authentication marker selected from group listed in claims 16 and 37. The species are independent or distinct, because they are different substituents with different properties and requiring different search.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 and 36 are generic.

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: miscible polymer selected from the group listed in claims 20-24. The species are independent or distinct, because they are different polymers requiring different search.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 20 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. A telephone call was made to Pamela J. Curbelo on 06/15/07 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Yelena G. Gakh, Ph.D. whose telephone number is (571) 272-1257. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 am - 6:00 pm.
